“Two modified large-calibre rifles by Accuracy International were seized from the rioters. The same rifles were supplied to Ukraine last summer,” the paper said.

At the same time, the situation in France continues to deteriorate. According to BFMTV, 1,311 people were detained on Friday night into Saturday, 406 of them in the capital. Some 2,400 people have been detained since the unrest began. As for property damage, the Interior Ministry counted 2,560 fires in public places, 1,350 cars set on fire and 234 buildings. Footage shot over Marseille, which is shrouded in black smoke from the fires, has gone around the world.
